Mr. Federico Stallforth

Dear Federico:

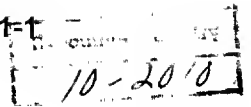

It was good to get your letter and to hear from you after so many years. I have no immediate plans for being in New York and find myself fairly busy these days, but if I should be there I shall let you know, and please give me a call if you come to Washington.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen:

This afternoon I tried to reach you on the telephone. For some time I have wanted to get in touch with you, but due to my illness, I have been unable to communicate with you.

I had a conversation with Arthur Dean, and he was the one who suggested that I should talk with you.

If you are going to be in New York in the near future, I would appreciate it if you would let me know, as I would very much like to see you. If, however, you aren't coming here, I would be very glad to come to Washington. Let me know and I will meet you there.

With kindest personal regards,

Your old friend,

Federico
